"For me, the publication of any book by Alain de Botton is as much a reason for celebration as it is for cerebration, and his novel The Course of Love is a satisfying look at relationships and the perils of romantic love. This public philosopher writes with verve." -Wall Street Journal (WSJ.com)

The Course of Love: A Novel: de Botton, Alain ...
The Course of Love is a novel that explores not so much the start of love, as its maintenance over time; the way our ideals bend and reform under the pressures of an average existence, and the magnificent, sometimes frightening, developments we can make as we slowly realise that love is in essence a skill we need to learn rather than an enthusiasm we simply experience.

The Course of Love - Alain de Botton
Alain de Botton, an author known for tackling the big philosophical questions in accessible nonfiction, has the perfect narrator for his second novel. Julian Rhind-Tutt's voice is tender, seductive, secretive, or open, as needed.

The Course of Love by Alain De Botton - Books-A-Million
In his first novel, On Love, philosopher Alain de Botton catalogued the process of falling in and out of love, putting his own unique and perceptive spin on the modern day love story. Now, over two decades later, de Botton finds himself deeply fascinated by another facet of love, one that literature and films too often neglect: Having fallen in love and committed ourselves to another person, what is it like to have been married awhile?
