Es war einmal ein Junge. Er war ungef ä hr vierzehn Jahre alt, gro ß und gut gewachsen und flachshaarig. Viel nutz war er nicht, am liebsten schlief oder a ß er, und sein gr ö ß tes Vergn ü gen war, irgend etwas anzustellen. Es war an einem Sonntagmorgen, und die Eltern machten sich fertig, in die Kirche zu gehen. Der Junge sa ß in Hemd ä rrmeln auf dem Tischrande und dachte, wie g ü nstig das sei, da ß Vater und Mutter fortgingen und er ein paar Stunden lang tun k ö nne, was ihm beliebe. „ Jetzt kann ich Vaters Flinte herunternehmen und schie ß en, ohne da ß es mir jemand verbietet, " sagte er zu sich. Aber es war fast, als habe der Vater die Gedanken seines Sohnes erraten, denn als er schon auf der Schwelle stand, um hinauszugehen, hielt er inne und wendete sich zu ihm. „ Da du nicht mit Mutter und mir in die Kirche gehen willst, " sagte er, „ so sollst du wenigstens daheim die Predigt lesen. Willst du mir das versprechen? "

„ Ja, " antwortete der Junge, „ das kann ich schon. " Aber er dachte nat ü rlich, er werde gewi ß nicht mehr lesen, als ihm behagte. Dem Jungen kam es vor, als ob seine Mutter sich noch nie so rasch bewegt h ä tte. In einem Nu war sie am B ü cherbrett, nahm Luthers Postille herunter, schlug die Predigt vom Tage auf und legte das Buch auf den Tisch am Fenster. Sie schlug auch das Evangelienbuch auf und legte es neben die Postille. Schlie ß lich r ü ckte sie noch den gro ß en Lehnstuhl an den Tisch, der im vorigen Jahr auf der Auktion im Pfarrhause zu Vemmenh ö g gekauft worden war und in dem sonst au ß er Vater niemand sitzen durfte. Der Junge dachte, die Mutter mache sich wirklich zu viel M ü he mit diesen Vorbereitungen, denn er hatte im Sinne, nicht mehr als eine oder zwei Seiten zu lesen. Aber zum zweiten Male war es, als ob der Vater ihm mitten ins Herz sehen k ö nnte, denn er trat zu ihm und sagte in strengem Ton:

„ Gib wohl acht, da ß du ordentlich liest! Wenn wir zur ü ckkommen, werde ich dich ü ber jede Seite ausfragen, und wenn du etwas ü bergangen hast, geht es dir schlecht. "
