Friend of Sinners: Why Jesus Cares More About Relationship ...

The Bible calls Jesus a friend of sinners. What does that mean? In Friend of Sinners, Rich Wilkerson Jr. shows readers the profound implications of the reality that Jesus calls us friends not because of who we are or what we have done, but because of who he is. While he was on earth, he knew that people needed to belong before they would want to behave.

Friend of Sinners: Why Jesus Cares More About Relationship ...

Jesus was called a friend of sinners by the Pharisees (Matthew 9:11; 11:16–19). They meant it as an assault on His reputation. The Pharisees, from their own sense of self-righteousness and superiority, kept their distance from "tax collectors and sinners" (a despised group), whereas Jesus conversed with and even dined with them (Luke 19:5–7). The Pharisees were, of course, sinners as well (Romans 3:23; Matthew 23:27–28), but they did not view themselves as such (Luke 18:9–14).
