Book Review: Friends Not MastersAuthor: Mohammad Ayub KhanReview by Raza Bashir. Even though it is an autobiography that the author calls a political commentary, one gets the feeling that the author has tried to go over the exercise in a very impersonal manner. Apart from the chapter relating to this youth the author has seldom tried to go over the events and affairs of his life in an emotional context.

November 08, 2018. A genuine correlation between the two words 'friends' and 'masters' is only half true. Either individuals, groups or the nations would be friends or in a subject-master relationship but not co-existing as masters as well as friends. In foreign policy absolute friendship amongst the nations is only a myth.
