Definition and general remark The word psychology is derived from two Greek words "psyche" and "logos." Psyche means soul and logos means the study. Thus, originally psychology was defined as the study of "soul" or "spirit." But later on philosophers defined psyche as mind. Because of this, □ General psychology Section A 1. The different schools of psychology represent the major theories within psychology. The first school of thought, structuralism, was advocated by the founder of the first psychology lab, Wilhelm Wundt. Almost immediately, other theories began to emerge and vie for dominance in psychology. In the past, psychologists often identified themselves exclusively with one single school of thought.
