Abstract. Geopolitics and grand strategy are modern concepts of statecraft associated with the rise and decline of Great Powers. This chapter looks at the concept of geopolitics and its significance for grand strategy. It does so by tracing the development of the concepts and showing how the meaning of the concepts evolved in response to changing world historical contexts.

This chapter examines the concept of geopolitics and its role in grand strategy. It first considers how the concepts of grand strategy and geopolitics evolved in response to changing world historical contexts before discussing why they came to be associated with the politics of Great Powers. It shows that the concept of grand strategy was initially developed in the context of the Second World War and that both the Soviet Union and the United States acted geopolitically during the cold war.

Geopolitics and ideology in US grand strategy

Conceptualizing geopolitics “Few modern ideologies are as whimsically all-encompassing, as romantically obscure, as intellectually sloppy, and as likely to start a third world war as the theory of ‘geopolitics,’” complained Charles Clover in a 1999 Foreign Affairs article. 20 Throughout the ...

~~Geopolitics, geography and strategic history~~

At the outset of the 21st century the world is undergoing a significant process of strategic and geopolitical redefinition. Several major powers have been developing comprehensive doctrines aligning a wide range of national economic, political and social policies with their wider strategic objectives in the 21st century: grand strategies.
