Goodnight Everyone by Chris Haughton is a children's story about a little bear cub who isn't tired and doesn't want to go to sleep. We found the story to be a little bland. It's visually appealing, but the story wasn't super interesting. I think it's a great bedtime book for toddlers.

Goodnight Everybody A phrase used by Tonight Show host Johnny Carson and then by Late Show host David Letterman to indicate that a humorous point had just come close to crossing a line and getting the show pounced on by network censors. Later adopted by the character Yakko Warner of Animaniacs voiced by Rob Paulsen.

Urban Dictionary: Goodnight Everybody
Goodnight, Everybody! is a quote mostly said by Yakko in Animaniacs. It is usually said when an innuendo is made, which makes Yakko blow a kiss at the audience and quote "Goodnight Everybody!". In My Mother the Squirrel, Skippy Squirrel says it after the rimshot innuendo joke.

GOODNIGHT EVERYONE - +++++ Chris Haughton
Goodnight Everyone is the perfect bedtime story, with its tale of sleepy animals. The illustrations are drawn on deep coloured backgrounds. They are simple with straight lines, and certainly capture the feeling of it being night-time. The text is kept to a minimum, which will help young children read along with the person they are sharing it with.
