I Love You, Daddy movie review (2017) | Roger Ebert

“ 4 of the greatest words in the English language – ‘ Daddy, I love you ’ . ” Nathan had just said it to me, and then I got to thinking about that phrase in another way. Imagine how us expressing our love to God makes Him feel. If I can feel so good hearing Nathan tell me that He loves me, my worship must make God feel great.

A peck on your cheek, remembering, "I love you, Daddy." You would have been four today A tear trickles down my cheek I remember your little voice "Daddy, Let's play." I kneel down, placing four roses on your grave It hurts to remember your hugs and kisses And the memory, "I love you, Daddy." You would have been five today I try not to think about it But the emptiness won't stop
