Jack Hanna Big Book of Why Animals answers the why and did you know questions about all kinds of animals that kids commonly ask, but adults can rarely answer. What's the difference between a crocodile and an alligator? Why do animals' eyes glow in the dark? Why do cats purr? Written in an informative, engaging manner, each answer is accompanied by either a photo or an illustration to show the reasons why. Of course, Jack goes beyond answering the question, and dips into a combination of science, history and humor to further explain the answer in an easy-to-follow, straightforward manner. Jack Hanna Big Book of Why is a must-have book to satisfy the most curious of kids.

"The year 2009 marked the Centennial anniversary of Quetico Provincial Park, a 4,760 sq.km. (1,800 sq.mi) area west of Lake Superior and north of Minnesota's Boundary Waters Canoe Area. This magnificent landscape of over 600 lakes in the heart of North America is linked by an intricate web of rivers and trails, and forms one of the greatest paddling paradises on Earth. Let this book be an inspiration to planning your own adventure into Quetico's benevolent spirit."--pub. desc.

Jack Hanna's Big Book of How presents kids 8–12 years old with answers to the kinds of interesting questions that appeal to their sense of curiosity. Colorful graphics and intriguing photos will answer such questions as “How do Kangaroos Jump so high?” or “How do Parrots Talk?” or “How do Cheetahs run so fast?” The book is the next in the series and follows the Jack Hanna Big Book of Why. “How” is the next biggest question that kids ask after why, and this book will help both kids and parents understand the animal world together as a fun, learning experience.

What happens when 8-year-old Kate, on safari in South Africa with her family, meets Michelle, a professional wildlife guide? The two new friends – one from America, the other from South Africa – turn their adventures into a lively book in which they share facts and secrets about the African bushveld. At the same time, they show how young children everywhere can become advocates for wild animals. Let’s Go on Safari! combines daily entries in Kate’s African safari journal with insights from Michelle about the bushveld and wildlife. Kate discovers the wonders of wildlife contrasted with the threats that animals face. She is inspired to make a difference. The book provides examples of small-scale, achievable animal advocacy projects that kids can initiate in their own communities and schools. Let’s Go on Safari! has been endorsed by significant conservation bodies, including the Jane Goodall Institute, the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust and Global Wildlife Conservation, an organisation working around the world to save endangered animals. Sales points: An entertaining account of what happens on a bushveld safari, told by a young nature lover; packed with interesting facts and full-colour photographs, and presented in an accessible journal style; shows young readers that they can play a positive role in saving wildlife; endorsed by global conservation bodies: the Jane Goodall Institute, the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust and Global Wildlife Conservation.

When her owner dies at the start of the Revolution, a greedy nephew keeps Isabel and her younger sister enslaved and sells them to Loyalists in New York, where Isabel is offered the chance to spy for the Patriots.

His Woman. His Family. His Company. When the going gets tough, the tough get Alpha. Silicon Valley billionaire CEO Gabriel Betts has finally found the happiness he's been searching for--in gorgeous, brilliant fellow billionaire Lauren Taylor, the so-called reigning queen of the biotech industry. But when Chinese healthcare mogul Li Na Zhao kidnaps Lauren's sister in a high-stakes game of corporate espionage, the world they've worked so hard to protect comes crashing down. Li Na agrees to trade Hannah for Lauren's Paragon Laboratories and her help--onsite and in person. In an attempt to keep Lauren safe, Gabe calls in his security-industry professional brothers to help get Hannah back. But when the rescue effort stumbles, Gabe must pick up the pieces to protect the woman he loves...before she makes the ultimate sacrifice.
