My first Lenormand deck, the Malpertuis Lenormand, was published in late 2014 and is available from this site. This deck was initially intended as a companion to the Tyldwick Tarot, but inevitably ended up changing throughout the design process into a more independent creation. Since then I've been working on further Lenormand decks and am also ...

Jean Ray's 1943 novel Malpertuis is a strange little book indeed. It's not immediately obvious wherein lies the strangeness, but don't despair. If you like weirdness, there's plenty of that to come. The works of the Belgian-born Ray are generally regarded as belonging to what Europeans call the literature of the fantastique.
