not issue past papers, however because the test is written by GL we know a great deal about what the exam will look and feel like and what sort of questions are asked. A booklet is also issued by Kent which includes example 11 Plus questions. Instead of using past papers as they don't exist we suggest using the practice papers which are written and sold by GL (the same people who produce the Kent test).

Search for modified papers. We only publish question papers and mark schemes for some current specifications, in the year following the exam. See what's available when for more information. Some question papers and mark schemes are no longer available after three years, due to copyright restrictions (except for Maths and Science). Teachers can get past papers earlier, from 10 days after the exam, in the secure key materials (SKM) area of our extranet, e-AQA .
