Dragonheart series I enjoyed the books very much. I could not stop reading. Nevertheless I think there is reason to check the writing before publishing, at least the e-vertion. There are a lot of spelling and language mistakes, commas absent where they should be or put where they should not be. I only hope that it is not the writer's fault. Also the author mixes up names or forgets characters.

If I died on a ship, or at sea, then it would be far from the Land of the Wolf and my family, my people and my clan would be safe. That was the main reason I was leaving. Word would soon get out that the Dragonheart was dying. There were men who wished to own my sword. A dying Dragonheart was a less daunting prospect than a fit one. I needed to ...
